Bechtle Rheinland – Change of bank details

Hello, dear business partner, as already communicated in June, we have consolidated the activities of Bechtle Aachen, ITZ Essen, Bechtle Köln and Bechtle Solingen into a single company. Four system houses have now become an even stronger team. With integrated support from a single organisation, we are also underlining the great importance for the Rhineland technology region and the neighbouring economic area.

As part of this merger, we have already informed you that some of our company details have changed. To ensure that your commercial processes continue to run smoothly, we kindly ask you to use the new bank details below, effective immediately, for all future payments.
